This is a 2022 Hyundai TUCSON 1.6L Petrol Plug-in Hybrid, presented in the sporty N Line trim. As a Euro 6 compliant car with four-wheel drive, this T-GDi N Line variant comes equipped with an ICCB cable for domestic power sockets and an AC charging cable for charging stations. Convenience is enhanced with a smart key, offering keyless entry and engine start-stop functionality. The interior is well-appointed with heated front seats and a wireless phone charging pad. Having had only one owner, this TUCSON is ready for its next adventure. The Hyundai TUCSON distinguishes itself with its large boot space, offering ample room for luggage, shopping, or sports equipment. This makes it more practical than similar vehicles in its class, ensuring you don't have to compromise on space.
