With only 492 miles on the clock, this 2023 Citroen Ami is practically brand new. This electric car boasts a 6 kWh battery, offering a maximum range of 47 miles when new. The vehicle includes a panoramic sunroof, allowing natural light to flood the cabin, and LED front and rear lights for enhanced visibility and a modern aesthetic. Charging is convenient, taking just 4 hours to reach full capacity using a 7kW home charger. The low mileage for its age means that this Citroen Ami stands out as a particularly well-preserved example. The inclusion of a fixed panoramic sunroof and LED headlights further enhances its appeal, offering features that set it apart from other similar vehicles.
