With only one previous owner, this 2024 Skoda Kodiaq vRS is a superb car. The Kodiaq vRS boasts a powerful 2.0L petrol engine and a four-wheel drive system, ensuring a confident and smooth driving experience. The vehicle's Euro 6 emission class reflects its modern environmental standards. Inside, you'll find a host of features designed for comfort and convenience. Heated front seats provide warmth on colder days, while the electrically adjustable driver's seat with memory function allows you to find your perfect driving position effortlessly. The dual-zone climate control, complete with a humidity sensor, maintains an ideal cabin environment for all occupants. Parking is made easy with the rear-view camera and parking assistance system. The full LED matrix headlights, featuring an adaptive front light system, cornering function, and all-weather lighting, enhance visibility and safety. The acceleration is a real plus, demonstrating how this car outpaces similar models, reaching 0-60mph in just 6.4 seconds. With seven seats, this Kodiaq is ideal for larger families.
